NEWS UPDATE

Buyout Complications

The recent buyout (sell-out) of Capital City to Diamond Comic Distribution has caused a lot fo concern in the industry, with good cause. However, here at Vision Comics, it has caused more specific problems. We have been able to bring all of our titles to you, the reader, for only $1.95 -- a price that was remarkably low for the size of the print runs that we had on these titles. The secret to this low price lay in the discount rate that we were able to secure with Capital City; a rate which allowed us to recoup our investment and build towards a bigger, better future. Unfortunately, Diamond is nowhere near as accomodating. Not only were they unwilling to give us a favorable discount rate before, but they are unwilling to do so now. This means that all of the titles which we have solicited through them up to and including November (at $1.95) would be sold at nearly break-even, resulting in a number of months of loss after loss for us. Diamond is absolutely inflexible on this point, and will not change their rate, not even for these few intervening months. Obviously, we have been placed in a very bad spot.

There was really only one solution to this, as much as it galled us. We would have to cancel all of our upcoming titles and re-solicit them in the next Diamond catalogs... which were for December. This meant that we would basically cease coming out with comics entirely from July to December. But what choice do we have? None.

Cancellations & Delays

We will not be coming out with any new titles until the month of December. That means all of our listed and advertised titles will be delayed until then, including the American Journal of Anthropomorphics. While we apologize to our readers, the matter is beyond our control. However, our return to the comic market will be heralded by full page advertisements in both PREVIEWS, Diamond Dialogue and the ORDERBOOK. We will be hard to miss.

Unfortunately, we are delaying and re-soliciting for a reason. This reason is we need to raise our cover price to make up for the change in our distributor rate. This extra money doesn't go to us... it's not rapaciousness that caused this change (at least, not on our part). It goes directly to the comic stores and to Diamond.

The books will all be increasing in cost from their former $1.95 to approximately $2.25 to $2.50, depending on their page count, print run, circulation and other concerns. Those who have subscribed to our titles up until July will have those subscriptions honored. However, we cannot offer any rate substantially lower than cover price through direct sales. Our subscription rates have therefore changed. We are still committed to bringing our readers excellent entertainment at the lowest prices possible, and we thank all of you for your patience, support and understanding.

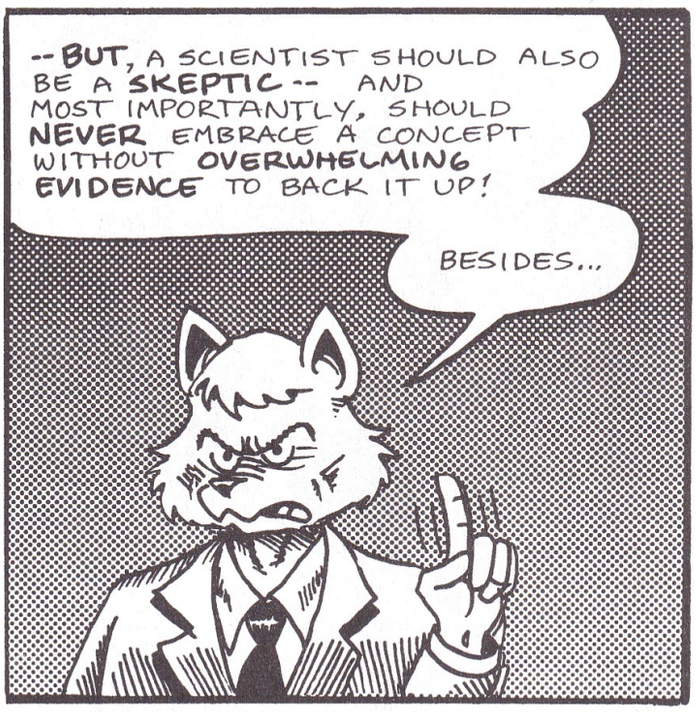
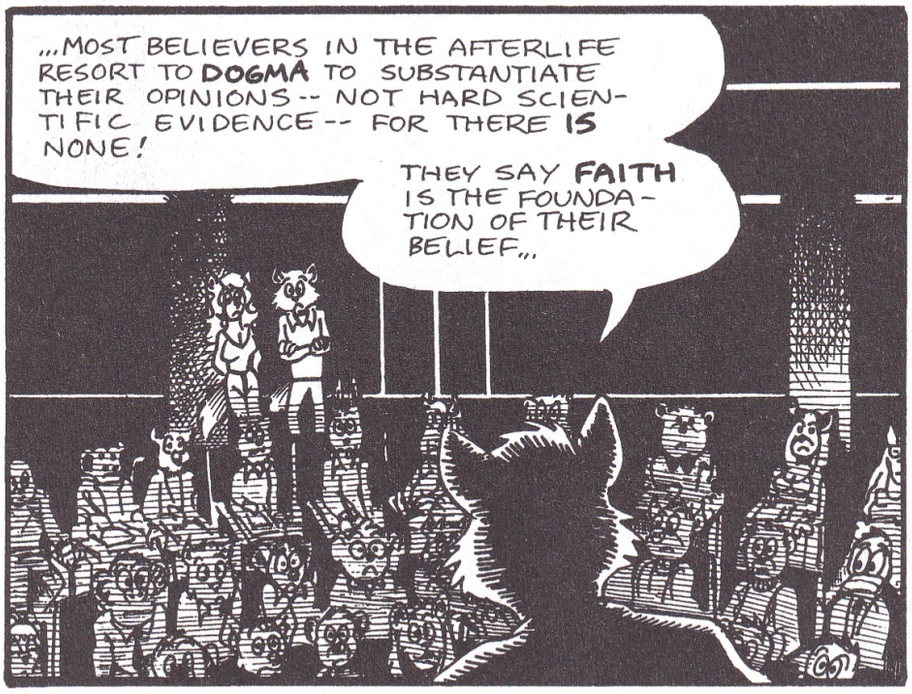
DON'T YOU FEEL THAT THAT'S A RATHER... WELL... CLOSE-MINDED VIEWPOINT--? I THOUGHT SCIENTISTS SHOULD BE OPEN TO ALL POSSIBILITIES...
AND SO THEY SHOULD...

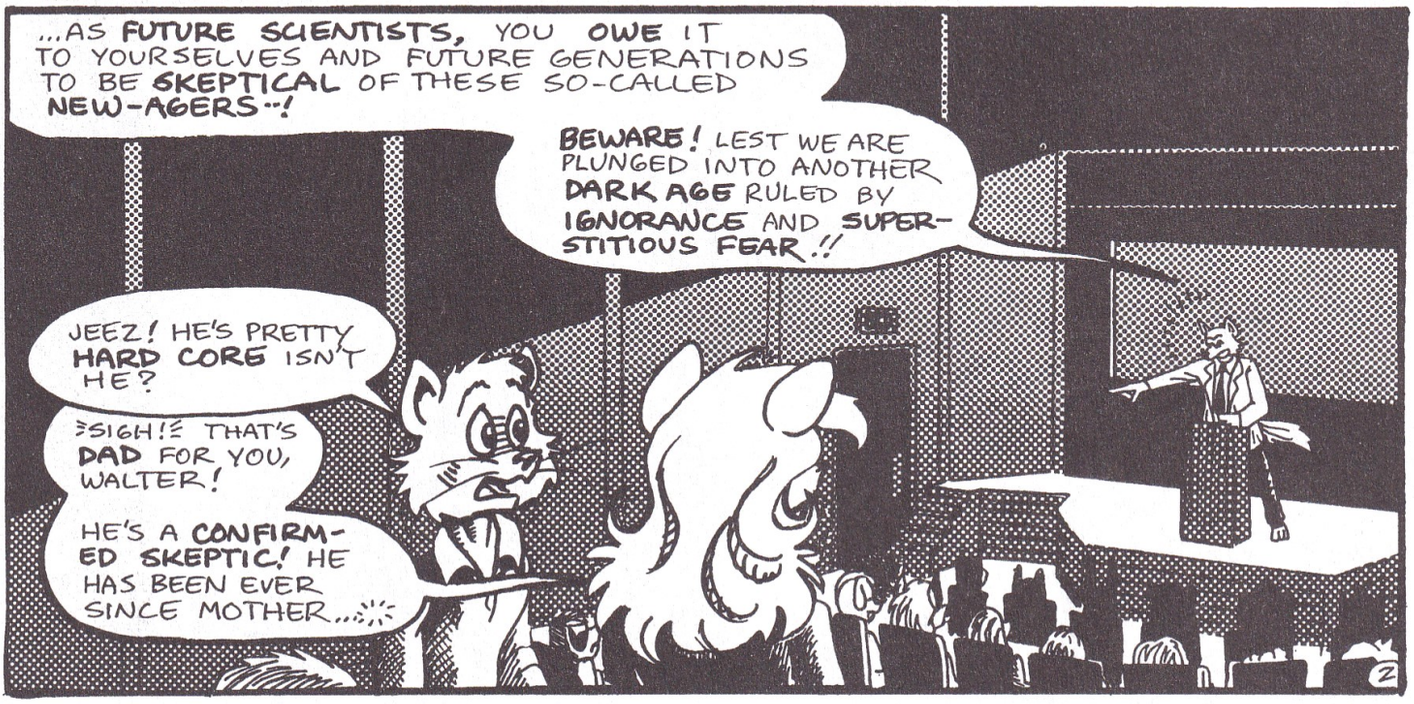


--BUT, A SCIENTIST SHOULD ALSO BE A SKEPTIC -- AND MOST IMPORTANTLY, SHOULD NEVER EMBRACE A CONCEPT WITHOUT OVERWHELMING EVIDENCE TO BACK IT UP!
BESIDES...



...MOST BELIEVERS IN THE AFTERLIFE RESORT TO DOGMA TO SUBSTANTIATE THEIR OPINIONS -- NOT HARD SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE -- FOR THERE IS NONE!
THEY SAY FAITH IS THE FOUNDATION OF THEIR BELIEF...

WELL, PEOPLE, I'M AFRAID BELIEF IN SOMETHING I CAN NEITHER SEE, TOUCH, HEAR, OR SMELL IS BEYOND ME!
--AND SHOULD BE BEYOND YOU TOO!



...AS FUTURE SCIENTISTS, YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELVES AND FUTURE GENERATIONS TO BE SKEPTICAL OF THESE SO-CALLED NEW-AGERS--!
BEWARE! LEST WE ARE PLUNGED INTO ANOTHER DARK AGE RULED BY IGNORANCE AND SUPERSTITIOUS FEAR!!
JEEZ! HE'S PRETTY HARD CORE ISN'T HE?
SIGH! THAT'S DAD FOR YOU, WALTER!
HE'S A CONFIRMED SKEPTIC! HE HAS BEEN EVER SINCE MOTHER...

...WELL... EVER SINCE I CAN REMEMBER...
—YOU OKAY, CATHERINE...?

LISTEN... I HAVEN'T KNOWN YOU FOR VERY LONG, BUT I GET THE FEELING YOU'RE WORRIED ABOUT SOMETHING...
...WOULDN'T YOU FEEL BETTER TALKING ABOUT IT--?
...IF I CAN I'D LIKE TO HELP...

OH... IT'S NOTHING, WALTER... I GUESS I'M JUST STILL NERVOUS ABOUT THAT ATTACK ON US BY THOSE BAT-WINGED MONSTERS LAST WEEK!*
THAT'S ENOUGH TO UNNERVE ANYONE!

Hi, boys and girls! "Uncle" Mark here, welcoming you to the second issue of WALTER KITTY IN THE HOLLOW EARTH*, and our first letter page! Response to the first issue has been rather gratifying, so let's see what some of our readers have to say...*

Dear Catherine Foxx:

Just picked up The Hollow Earth* #1 at my favorite retailer store, Comics and Collectibles on Fruitridge. Would you believe they were the only retailer store that had your comic?

This comic was fun and entertaining and you had me hooked on the story as soon as Catherine was introduced to the Source! It had already become mystical and magical. Just like a movie, the story takes us back 12 years later and I meet the hilarious Walter Kitty. This character is funny as all heck! I love him!

This comic really brightened up my spirits and had humor thrown throughout the story. Suspense! It even has suspense, as Walter hears a scratching behind the door and then opening it, he gets a horrific surprise!

Action! Yes, we have action, with the bat-winged monsters as they go about doing what they know best and that is to terrify! Catherine is thrown into a loop as she contemplates the great responsibility that now has been bestowed upon her. I'm loving this story every minute! Cliffhangers! Holy Zazooks! Heavenly Hoares! The Gateway to the Hollow Earth! What in blazes is going to happen next?? When is the next issue coming out??

This comic was a cross between J.R.R. Tolkien's The Hobbit and Roger Rabbit, and it couldn't have been done better!! Thank you for your splendid creation and I will faithfully await the next issue!

Sincerely yours,
Paul Dale Roberts
Sacramento, CA

Thanks Paul! Glad you liked it! Hope you'll continue to enjoy Walter's adventures, as he stumbles his way into the Hollow Earth!

Dear Mark Shaw and Vision-aries:

I bought the first four Vision Comics hoping for the best from this new player in the furry comics arena. Fortunately, for the most part the Vision books have been very entertaining. Vision Comics is off to a fine start, and so is one of its most interesting titles, Mark Shaw's The Hollow Earth.

The Hollow Earth has a 1930's pulp feel, like Shaw's Furrlough serial "Bronze Fur," but with more emphasis on humor and characterization. As with "Bronze Fur," the plot of The Hollow Earth is hardly original, but the characters are so likable and Shaw's enthusiasm for his material is so palpable that I can't object. My only complaint (and it's a small one) is that while Shaw's artwork is very good, I wish it were more polished and less cartoony, not unlike Eric Schwartz' fine cover art. I especially think that Shaw should get rid of the omnipresent scratchy lines and use other shading techniques.

The Hollow Earth #1 sets up many mysteries which will be solved in future issues, but there are a few I'd like to bring up in this letter:

* Is Mariana Foxx dead, or on some higher plane of existence, or both?
* Who is the mystery woman who makes Walter Kitty a temporary millionaire? Is it just a coincidence that she looks like one of the demon creatures in drag?
* Was Dr. Robert Foxx inspired by character actor William Windom? I see a physical resemblance, and I hear Windom's voice in my mind when I read Dr. Foxx's dialogue.

Which brings me to my final point. Based on the first issue, The Hollow Earth looks like it would make an exciting animated film or TV series. If Shaw continues to mix humor and character development with the horror and action/adventure elements, I really believe that an animated Hollow Earth could appeal to the same audience that watched Duck Tales, Tale Spin and SWAT Kats. In the meantime, I'll continue to read The Hollow Earth with great interest.

Best wishes,

Wow! I'd like there to be an animated version of THE HOLLOW EARTH too! Think of the money--er, I mean, the pleasure that would bring! To answer your questions, for the sake of future surprises Mariana's state must remain a mystery, at least for now. I thought the rich old lady looked more like Fat Freddy's Cat*, myself! And Dr. Foxx was actually modeled after actor Patrick McGoohan- -! Good guess, though.*

That's it for this time, folks! Next issue, come along with Walter and his companions as they finally begin their underground odyssey! It's fantasy-adventure in the grand tradition--except that it's with cats...and dogs...and foxxes...and...oh, skip it. Write Us!
